LISA LASKY

Lisa Lasky grew up studying ballet, tap, jazz, acrobatics, and lyrical to become an all-around dancer. She began competing at a young age with her dance studio and was nationally recognized as a top dancer. She was also the captain of her national champion high school dance team where her choreography was awarded first for their routine. She has also taken many master classes and attended conventions that were taught by some of the choreographers you see on TV today.

Lisa attended Rutgers University, where she was a member of the Rutgers Dance Team. During the time she performed at various events, which include NFL and ESPN promotions for the NY Jets. She also worked through college teaching at various dance studios for both recreational and competitive dancers.

Lisa then moved into teaching high school for 10 years and was the Head Coach of the national champion Lakeland Dance team. Lisa is absolutely thrilled to finally take residency at Starstruck Dance Academy and be the new Company Director of our incredibly talented dancers!
